

Prioritizing HPV Immunization Of Indigenous Populations:

An international Indigenous HPV symposium and immunization prioritization discussions

International Papillomavirus Conference
September 19, 2011
Berlin, Germany

Purpose

- To discuss the health needs/burden of disease of Indigenous populations, equity issues, and innovative practices with respect to HPV disease prevention
- To strategize the optimal methods of ensuring HPV immunization is prioritized for Indigenous populations globally

Presenters

- Fiona Cram - Equity tools- Inclusive processes to facilitate equitable outcomes
- Erich Kliwer - HPV vaccine uptake among First Nations peoples - disparities in Manitoba, Canada
- Pema Lhaki - Challenges to Immunization in Nepal
- Beverley Lawton - Prioritising Equity in HPV vaccination programme in New Zealand